MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FINANCIAL INFORMATION UNDER SEAL

Now comes Applicant, Enron Broadband Services, Inc. ("EBS"), by its attorney, James J. Stamos, of Stamos & Trucco, and moves this honorable Commission for leave to file its financial information under seal relative to its Application For Certificate to Become A Telecommunications Carrier filed with this Motion. In support of its Motion, Applicant states as follows:

1. On June 30, 2000, Applicant filed with the Commission its Application For Certificate to Become A Telecommunications Carrier seeking a certificate to provide interexchange service.
2. The Application requires the provision of Applicant's income statement and balance sheet. Applicant submits that data herewith, in a sealed envelope, and requests that it remain under seal at all times, except when being viewed by Commission staff.
3. The relief requested in this motion will not prejudice the ability of the Commission to consider the Application and is necessary to protect the proprietary interests of the Applicant.

WHEREFORE, Applicant, Enron Broadband Services, Inc. prays that the Commission enter an Order granting Applicant leave to file its financial data under seal and maintaining that financial data under seal at all times, other than when being reviewed by Commission staff.

Respectfully submitted,

James J. Stamos, One of the Attorneys for Applicant
